I don't really know where to put a topic like this, since there's not really a general discussion for Fable III.

I want to start a new game, but I've got some gear and weapons I wanted to take over with me. I wanted to know if anyone could help trade my items with me? I could trade some of my worlds weapons and gems in exchange for helping me out. (I've also got a lot of gold)

I imagine you've long since forgotten this request, but in case it helps others:

One possible solution listed a few other places in this forum (if you're willing to ditch G4WL) is to download one of the emulators and then simply insert code for each of your items for your new character.

I hope that helps!
