This is not a modding topic but as there is no general Fable 3 discussion sub-forum I'll post it here.

I've posted this last year already, before the forum was renewed. I took a break from Fable 3 for about a year and so I got the glitch again because I forgot my own research of how to avoid this. But it also made me think again and I remembered what to do avoid it.

I don't know if this is the only way Jasper gets glitched but IIRC the way I get the glitch is when I get the legendary weapon upgrade tutorial triggered by a DLC weapon. Then it always glitches. The Sanctuary Dpad shortcuts vanish and Jasper can't be "press A'd" anymore because he gets stuck wanting to explain the upgrade functionality to you. And you have to go to the armory manually. That's why the shortcuts disappear. I avoid this by buying a legendary weapon or getting one from a chest first and then get a DLC weapon, either gift from DLC or quest item (Wolfsbane).

I remember Keshire did some script to fix this, but I have not try it Actually I like this bug, since I'm pretty bored of Jasper bullshiting...
So, I don't really want to fix it :)

I attached Keshire script, I don't remember exactly that it is or not :(

Hi there, I'm COMPLETELY NEW to F3 modding and I am running into OP's glitch. After downloading the script, how do I install it? I am totally stumped, PLEASE HELP.

The script does nothing. It is part of the blacksmithing mod. - I got the bug again. And I prevented it again: Get a vanilla legendary weapon, get Wolfsbane then get any other DLC weapon. The Wheel of Misfortune reward weapons definitely cause this bug. Get them last!
