For starters, I think it's awesome that everyone here has this game running without GFWL. But I can't help but wonder if we'll see more? Not to discredit anyone here, but things seem awfully slow. I'm just curious if there's anything left to find.

Unless there's another forum that's more active, I just don't think the interest is there. I bet if someone could get a breakdown of average hours played from steam it'd be a single playthrough's worth or less.
