

---

Subject:

Posted by apolline2 on Tue, 18 Nov 2025 09:40:05 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

selection, upgrades, or any special requests. Booking your Southwest Airlines flight is just the first step -- selecting the right seat is equally important for a comfortable journey. Whether you prefer a window view, extra legroom, or a quiet spot in the cabin, Southwest Airlines makes it easy to choose or change your seat. For U.S. travelers, the fastest way to get assistance is by calling

This guide will explain all seat selection options, tips to get your preferred seat, and step-by-step instructions to make changes online or by phone.

Your seat choice can significantly impact your travel experience:

- Comfort: Extra legroom or aisle seats make long flights easier.
- Convenience: Front cabin seats allow faster boarding and exit.
- View: Window seats offer scenic views and a wall to lean on.
- Quiet: Seats away from galleys and lavatories reduce noise.

With Southwest Airlines, you can choose a seat during booking, after booking, or at the airport, depending on your fare type.

Booking directly on Southwest Airlines's website is the easiest way to pick your preferred seat. Here's how:

1. Go to Manage My Booking.
2. Enter your last name and booking reference (PNR).
3. Click on Seat Selection.
4. Review the cabin layout and available seats.
5. Select your preferred seat (window, aisle, or extra legroom).
6. Confirm and save your selection.

If your fare type includes complimentary seat selection, you won't be charged. Otherwise, certain premium seats may require an additional fee.

you and ensure your preferred seat is assigned.

Even after booking, you can change your seat up to a few hours before departure:

- Online: Repeat the steps in Manage My Booking.

update your seat instantly.

- At the Airport: Visit the Southwest Airlines counter or kiosk to request a seat change.

choose or change your seat early.

Southwest Airlines offers different seat types across its cabins:

- Economy Class: Standard seats, some with extra legroom (available for a fee).
- Business Class: Wider, recliner-style seats with more space and comfort.
- Premium Seats: Extra legroom or preferred cabin locations, often requiring an upgrade.

1-866-284-3022 to explain which seats are best for families, solo travelers, or long-haul flights.

1. Check seat maps early -- popular seats get booked fast.
2. Consider your travel needs -- aisle for bathroom access, window for views.
3. Avoid noisy areas near galleys or lavatories if you want a quiet cabin.
4. Use Southwest Airlines app or website for easy seat selection and upgrades.

recommendations.

If you haven't picked a seat online or want to upgrade on arrival:

- Go to the Southwest Airlines check-in counter or kiosk.
- Provide your booking reference and ID.
- The staff can show available seats and assign your preferred option.
- Payment may apply for premium or extra-legroom seats.

Airport staff are also able to handle same-day seat changes if your original seat is unavailable.

- Confirm seat availability.
- Get advice on the best seat based on your travel class.
- Make changes for multiple passengers in one call.
- Avoid errors or issues with online seat maps.
- Ask about premium or upgrade options.

Speaking to a live agent ensures your seating preference is guaranteed and eliminates confusion with online booking tools.

1. Can I select my Southwest Airlines seat for free?

Yes, most Economy and Business Class fares allow free seat selection, but some premium seats may require a small fee.

2. How can I change my seat after booking?

airport check-in counter.

3. Are window and aisle seats limited?

1-866-284-3022) can secure your preferred spot.

4. Can I choose a seat for extra legroom?

Yes, extra-legroom seats are available in Economy and Business classes. Fees may apply, depending on your ticket type.

5. Is it possible to get a seat upgrade at the airport?

Yes. Check availability at the Southwest Airlines counter or kiosk. Payment may be required for premium or preferred seats.

available 24/7 to assist with seat selection, upgrades, or any special requests.